

Schneider National de México – delivering superior transportation performance.

Transportation services that ensure your success has no borders.

Schneider National de México offers a variety of cross-border and domestic intra-Mexico services to exceed your transportation and logistics expectations. An experienced staff with in-depth local knowledge and extensive carrier relationships provides outstanding support, backed by Schneider National's 70 years of excellence. We design customized transportation solutions that fit your specific needs.

Schneider National de México provides the modal flexibility, capacity and safety your business requires, delivered with Schneider's reputation for integrity and service.

Truckload Transportation

By combining Schneider National's assets in the U.S. with Schneider National de México's trusted network of core carriers in Mexico, we deliver unparalleled capacity, service and flexibility to support the growing demand of your business. We offer one-way, dedicated, expedited, specialized and bulk services.

- Reliability
Schneider National de México and our core carriers provide consistent on-time delivery.
- Security
Confidence knowing that we stay in close contact with our core carriers to monitor your loads.
- Visibility
Have peace of mind with shipments covered by trailer tracking technology and ensure full control at every stage of your shipment.
- Coverage
Connect with your customers, wherever you need to go in Mexico or the U.S. by putting Schneider's resources and capacity to work for you.
- Service
Through our 24 x 7 customer service centers in Mexico and the U.S., we respond to your needs quickly in either Spanish or English.

Intermodal

We offer intermodal options that give you increased flexibility, capacity and reliability. Our relationship with the railroads in both Mexico and the U.S. ensures that your shipment will move on the best rail networks for on-time delivery. With TruckRail® we offer service to and from the border or directly into and out of Mexico. We deliver the flexibility you need to get your shipments where they need to be – when they need to be there.

- Flexibility and capacity
Get more shipping options with Schneider Intermodal and additional capacity with access to our broad portfolio of services, including Truckload Transportation and Transportation Management.
- Efficiency
Achieve more efficient shipping with our seamless border crossing services at the Mexican border.
- Service
Schneider National de México delivers the same commitment to our clients' success that has been a Schneider hallmark since 1935.

Transportation Management

For your shipping needs throughout North America, Schneider Transportation Management's service delivers seamless execution across your supply chain. We exceed your expectations for shipping with confidence and security and also offer transloading service at the border. Our third-party carriers deliver reliability, cargo security, safety and on-time delivery ... through a single Schneider point of contact.

- Capacity
Our network of carriers has unequalled capacity to move your freight.
- Flexibility
Access to Schneider's broad portfolio of services gives you more shipping options.
- Reliability
Keep your customers satisfied with consistent on-time pick-up and delivery.
- Experience
We work with Mexican carriers who know the country and have experience in every segment of the industry.

Transloading

Schneider National de México has added transloading service to offer a viable, alternative solution to move freight northbound. This innovative service delivers unlimited capacity, more shipping options and better access by moving freight out of Mexico with our core carriers and then loading onto Schneider National assets at the border.

- Capacity and flexibility – Move your freight northbound, quickly, with integrated access to Schneider's broad portfolio of services.
- Performance – Faster transit times mean more on-time deliveries for time-sensitive shipments.
- Efficiency – Less congestion at borders gets shipments to their destination on time, allowing you to better manage inventory.

Additional Services

Customs Brokerage and Freight Forwarding Services

Customs Brokerage and Freight Forwarding Services provide true end-to-end solutions for border crossing operations. We ensure proper documentation, customs payment and transportation to help you move freight across the border in one simple transaction, through one provider. You benefit with our turnkey solution that is fully compliant, efficient and worry free.

- Peace of mind
Our experienced agents manage transborder operations, so you do not have to.
- Speed
Our integrated management of the entire process delivers rapid transitions. For even faster service, we can pre-classify your freight to expedite the shipment through the process.
- Security
Diminish the potential for losses by minimizing hand-offs and working through a single provider.
