Kimberly-Clark Presents Schneider National with 2008 Carrier of the Year Award

Nation's largest truckload carrier earns recognition for outstanding on-time delivery and "can-do" spirit

GREEN BAY, Wis. – (July 22, 2009) – Schneider National, Inc., premier provider of transportation, logistics and intermodal services, has received the 2008 Carrier of the Year award from Kimberly-Clark (NYSE: KMB). Schneider earned this award for its innovative high-quality capacity solutions for over-the-road, intermodal and cross-border activity at virtually every Kimberly-Clark location. This is Schneider National's first win for this honor since the award's inception. Kimberly-Clark provides some of the world's most recognized consumer brands serving more than 150 countries.

"We recognize Schneider as a key 'go-to' strategic carrier to discuss internal initiatives and industry challenges," said Steve Harmon, vice president of transportation for Kimberly-Clark. "This award is a well-deserved win for Schneider who truly distinguished themselves in 2008. Their candor, insight and collaborative outlook throughout the entire organization helped us deliver the best service and value to our customers."

Schneider's award-winning, enterprise-wide efforts for Kimberly-Clark included significant support of the organization's 2008 cost-reduction initiatives, conducting transportation 101 symposiums for their transportation groups, delivering outstanding on-time delivery in 2008 exceeding 98 percent, and helping with a conversion of a legacy load-bearing process. "Schneider delivered consistent value each quarter in 2008," continued Harmon. "Their thought leadership, along with their willingness to embrace and accept change, has demonstrated a true partnership."

"It is an honor to receive Kimberly-Clark's Carrier of the Year award," said Steve Matheys, Schneider National executive vice president of global commercial sales. "This recognition is especially gratifying because it validates our collaborative relationship. It demonstrates that we consistently deliver more than transportation, logistics and intermodal services; we deliver business results."
